AWARDS NEWS

PROGRAM MODIFICATIONS\FELLOWSHIP DIVISION

The director of the Fellowship Division, Research Council of Canada has announced two changes. The Canada Research Fellowships programme is being phased out; no further competitions for new awards are planned. Fellows entering their third year of tenure are eligible for a one-year extension. Performance evaluation questionnaires for these fellowships are due November 1, 1990. NSERC/ SSHRC Master's Scholarships in Science Policy has opened a second competition to encourage students to undertake science policy studies at the master's level. The awards will be equal in value to the 1991-91 doctoral fellowships. The Research Council expects that there will be six awards available this year. The competition deadline is December 1, 1990.

MESSAGE FROM PATRICIA VERRET, GRADUATE AWARDS OFFICER

Applications are available for the SSHRC doctoral fellowships. Doctoral students who are currently registered full-time in a Canadian university must submit their application to their Department Head, who is then asked to rank the applications and send them to Ottawa no later than Tuesday, November 20, 1990. Current value of the award is $13,356. Applicants not currently registered in a Canadian university must send their application to the SSHRC by November 15, 1990. Patricia urges you to encourage your students to apply for this award.

F.C.A.R. SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION
